Honolulu (O'ahu), Kauai and Maui

The best known island is Oahu, where the city of Honolulu, capital of Hawaii is found, and the only real city within the islands. It is a blend of Hawaiian culture with the comforts and amenities of the 21st century. It is also known for its great waves to practice surfing in the North Shore.

From the towering cliffs of the Napali Coast to the vast canyons of Waimea Canyon, Kauai is a treat for the senses like no other destination. Explore the island by land, sea or air to experience the landscapes you've been dreaming of. Discover 50 miles of heavenly beaches from Poipu Beach to Hanalei Bay. Explore small, historic and charming villages like Hanapepe and Koloa where no building is taller than a coconut tree.

Maui, the second largest and second most famous island has some of the best beaches in the world. It is a great place to observe whales, it has a large dormant volcano that can be climbed, very good nightlife, quaint historic picturesque towns like Lahaina and a variety of resorts. Undoubtedly, the main attraction is driving the incredible Road to Hana, a spectacular journey that offers a variety of natural landscapes.
