

US, 11 Days · Tailor-made, fully flexible travel

New York, Boston and Washington DC

New York, the city of skyscrapers, trends, shopping, entertainment and movies. It is a cosmopolitan city, very active with millions of plans for things to do and thousands of restaurants to try. For those who like big cities, New York is the perfect destination. Boston is one of the oldest cities in the US and with the most history as it took a very active role during the US war of independence in the XIX century with such famous episodes as the famous "Boston Tea Party". It is also a hub of the business world being home to major multinational companies and the educational world as it has the first university in the country and one of the most prestigious, Harvard University. And, finally, be seduced by Washington DC, a city of variety and contrast, with emblematic buildings such as the Capitol.

Important remarks

- Tips in US are a common practice.
- Generally in US the accommodation in the triple rooms have two double beds or one double and one single bed and the quadruple accommodation has two double beds.
- Consult the entry restrictions and additional requirements for people who have previously traveled to destinations such as Cuba, Iran, Iraq, Yemen, Syria, etc.
- Hotels may charge a Resort Fee charge that must be paid directly at the destination. The amount can vary between approximately $15 and $65 per room per night. This charge is indicative and may be modified depending on the establishment's policy.
- Check-in time at the hotel on the day of arrival depends on each establishment, but in no case will it be before 3:00 p.m., unless otherwise indicated.
- Passports are required to get into Arlington Cemetery.
- Access to the National Air and Space Museum in Washington DC., It is still a free entity but now they require the reservation of a pass, in order to visit it. If the passenger does NOT have a confirmed pass, they will NOT be able to enter. This free pass requires prior reservation on the museum website <https://airandspace.si.edu/>
- A credit card is considered a guarantee, so sometimes you will need one for check-in at hotels.
- Hotels usually have cots available. Otherwise, babies will have to share a bed with an adult.
- Consult the necessary documentation to enter the destinations visited and for transit in the countries where air stopovers are made.
