

North Europe, 7 Days · Tailor-made, fully flexible travel

Stockholm and Helsinki by plane

Come and discover these two impressive cities at your leisure.

In Stockholm, more than 30% of the area occupied by the city is water and another 30% is made up of parks and green spaces, which makes it one of the cleanest capitals in Europe. This natural oasis is completed by the impressive Old Town (Gamla Stan), which has been preserved in very good condition over the centuries. This neighborhood is the epicenter of the city with countless thriving hotels, bars, restaurants and shops.

And Helsinki, the capital of Finland, is a vibrant coastal city of beautiful islands and large green parks. Experience the relaxed pace of the city but, at the same time, its activity both in terms of quantity and quality of restaurants and nightclubs

Important remarks

- Take advantage at the first hour of the day to get the Stockholm tourist card "Stockholm Pass" at their multiple sales points, most Pressbyrå kiosks, 7-Eleven, some hotels and municipal tourist offices. This will allow you to free access to more than 60 attractions such as museums, tourist attractions, boat tours and unlimited trips on the "hop on-hop off" buses. We recommend purchasing the option of 24 hours or the 48 hours, depending on the time you have set aside for discovering the charms of the capital of Sweden. The price of this tourist card for the 24 hours option ranges between 645-770 crowns (65-75 euros) for adults and 323-408 crowns (30-40 euros) for children (6-15 years), while for the 48 hours it ranges between 845-1,095 crowns (85-95 euros) for adults and 423-588 crowns (40-50 euros) for children (6-15 years). It can also be purchased via the Internet. You will also receive a free city guide when you pick up the card at the destination or when you receive it at home.
- Triple rooms in Europe are generally rooms with twin beds or a double, in which a folding bed is installed to accommodate the third person. Due to the inconvenience this causes, we advise against using this option as far the possible.
- Check-in time at the hotel on the day of arrival depends on each establishment, but in no case will it be before 3:00 p.m., unless otherwise indicated.
- Take advantage at the first hour of the day to get the 'Helsinki Card' from one of the following sales points: Strömman Finland, at Pohjoisesplanadi street 19, near Esplanadi Park (from 9:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m.), or at 24-hour collection points, such as Helsinki-Vantaa Airport Airpro Travel Service (T2 ground floor) or at the Hotel Seurahuone Helsinki (Kaivokatu, 12). This will give you free access to 28 museums, tours and tourist attractions in the city. We recommend purchasing the 24-hour option in order to get the most out of the time set aside for discovering the charms of the Finnish capital. This tourist card costs 48 euro for adults and 24 euro for children from 7 to 16 years old. It can also be purchased on the Internet.
- A credit card is considered a guarantee, so sometimes you will need one for check-in at hotels.

- Hotels usually have cots available. Otherwise, babies will have to share a bed with an adult.
- Consult the necessary documentation to enter the destinations visited and for transit in the countries where air stopovers are made.
