

Canada, 11 Days · Tailor-made, fully flexible travel

Montreal, Toronto and Vancouver

Montreal is the second-largest city in Canada and the second-largest predominantly French-speaking city in the world. You're sure to be enchanted by its streets, residents and cuisine. Located on the shores of Lake Ontario and a few kilometres from the United States border is Toronto, the economic heart of Canada and one of the country's most fascinating cities to visit. And, last but not least, discover Vancouver, where you will have the opportunity to discover important spots such as Chinatown, Gastown (Vancouver's oldest neighbourhood) or Stanley Park, which features a wonderful view of the bay and coastal mountains.

Important remarks

- Tips in Canada are a common practice.
- Generally in Canada the accommodation in the triple rooms have two double beds or one double and one single bed and the quadruple accommodation has two double beds.

- Check-in time at the hotel on the day of arrival depends on each establishment, but in no case will it be before 3:00 p.m., unless otherwise indicated.
- A credit card is considered a guarantee, so sometimes you will need one for check-in at hotels.
- Hotels usually have cots available. Otherwise, babies will have to share a bed with an adult.
- Consult the necessary documentation to enter the destinations visited and for transit in the countries where air stopovers are made.
