

Belgium and France, 6 Days · Tailor-made, fully flexible travel

Brussels and Paris by train

There are few cities in the world with the dynamism of Brussels, one of the most attractive capitals of the Old Continent when it comes to tourism and unraveling all its secrets, whether cultural, artistic or monumental.

And what about Paris, one of the most visited destinations in the world, which continues to surprise locals and foreigners alike and envelops the traveler in a magical atmosphere? The "City of Light", home to several universal exhibitions and considered one of the world epicenters of art, design and good taste, awaits you to breathe its "bon vivant" spirit and enjoy the pleasures of life, perhaps sitting at a table in one of its 8,000 cafes with terraces, or its typical bistros, or its elegant restaurants of international fame...

Important remarks

- Triple rooms in Europe are generally rooms with twin beds or a double, in which a folding bed is installed to accommodate the third person. Due to the inconvenience this causes, we advise against using this option as far as possible.
- Check-in time at the hotel on the day of arrival depends on each establishment, but in no case will it be before 3:00 p.m., unless otherwise indicated.
- A credit card is considered a guarantee, so sometimes you will need one for check-in at hotels.
- Hotels usually have cots available. Otherwise, babies will have to share a bed with an adult.
- Consult the necessary documentation to enter the destinations visited and for transit in the countries where air stopovers are made.
