

Thailand, 13 Days · Tailor-made including beach holiday

Bangkok, Chiang Rai, Chiang Mai and Phuket

Thailand is always fascinating, full of natural beauty, history, traditions, culture, and friendly, smiling people. It is little wonder that travellers fall in love with the country. On this tour, you will discover all this for yourself.

Bangkok is one of the most westernised Asian cities. In the Thai capital you can enjoy environments that are as much exotic, as diverse and sometimes, even contradictory. You will enjoy touring the hundreds of markets that invade the city, tasting its spicy culinary specialties or visiting some of its many colourful temples. Dare to get lost in its bustling and chaotic streets and enjoy the friendliness of its people.

In Chiang Rai, the Golden Triangle awaits you, traditional boat rides, visits to tribes and unusual museums, such as the one dedicated to the culture of opium.

In Chiang Mai you can have the experience of exploring the jungle on the back of elephants, going down the river on bamboo rafts, visiting temples revered by the Thai people, touring natural sites and visiting sustainable agriculture projects.

And combine it with the beaches of Phuket, one of Thailand's most varied islands with a lively nightlife, trips to the neighbouring Phi Phi Islands or the famous Phang Nga Bay and an array of superb hotels to satisfy even the most specific tastes.
